About APRAG

The Asia Pacific Regional Arbitration Group (APRAG) is a regional federation of 53 arbitration associations that aims to promote the region as a venue for arbitration and improve standards and knowledge of international arbitration.

About the Conference

APRAG Conference 2026 Tokyo

“International Arbitration – Innovation and Adaptation to Resolve Disputes in Our Changing Times”

1 - 3 November 2026

Tokyo International Forum, 5-1 Marunouchi 3-chome, Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo

APRAG Conference 2026 is jointly organized by the Asia Pacific Regional Arbitration Group (APRAG) and the Japanese Institute for International Arbitration Research and Training (JIIART). The conference is also locally supported by the Japan Commercial Arbitration Association (JCAA) and the Tokyo Maritime Arbitration Commission (TOMAC) of the Japan Shipping Exchange (JSE).

Call for Sponsors

APRAG 2026 is expected to be a platform for insightful discussion and an excellent networking opportunity for arbitrators, lawyers and others in the field of arbitration. Delegates and guests are expected to attend from a multitude of jurisdictions from across Asia Pacific and beyond. Prior annual conferences have attracted over 300 attendees. The organizers of APRAG 2026 hope that this year's venue in the heart of Tokyo's business district will attract as much or even more interest than prior years.
